Letter from the President

By Michele Santilhano

Dear NAPNAP community,

I hope this Fall 2021 newsletter finds you and your family safe, and healthy as you prepare for staying sane and finding renewal in the upcoming holiday season. I trust that the ongoing hybrid season with work and school are becoming easier to navigate.

The past few months have been exciting and engaging with the fall conference and happy hour allowing members to connect and network. In October, Rumi and I attended the regional call with Kim Erlich, our representative for the eight chapters in the western US: Arizona, Washington, Oregon and the four California Chapters: San Joaquin, Sacramento, San Diego and San Francisco and Los Angeles. I look forward to sharing and implementing some of the fun ideas in the new year such as a Spring Outdoor Social or Sound Bite info sessions. Our SF board are excited to start 2022 with a Winter CE and a Community Outreach Project.

We are starting to recruit for the 2022- 2023 Board, so If you are interested in developing leadership skills, giving back to the community, or advocating for your patient population and your profession, please consider joining as a board member.

Letter From the President Continued

By Michele Santilhano

Feel free to contact me for more information about available positions at napnapsf@gmail.com. There is a strong support network from Daniella Weitzman, national liaison contact, Kim Erlich, regional representative and 140-page document with templates and links.

As the holiday season approaches, please take a moment to acknowledge how much we as a chapter achieved during 2021 and accept my sincere appreciation for all the time each of you have contributed.

We cannot let the year end without sending special congratulations to those who became new moms this year or are in the final stages of preparing for a new family member before 2022.

Sincerely,

Michele Santilhano, RN, DNP PPC
